

Business Mood Is Brighter

Big Spending Plans Point To Optimism

NEW YORK (AP) — As President Johnson ends his first 100 days on the job, many businessmen say the business mood has brightened.

The consensus of business leaders interviewed on a cross-country tour appeared to be that whatever the precise reason and however long it will last, the business climate has turned sunnier.

This isn't a matter of partisan politics. It's a question of whether businessmen feel Johnson is running the country in a way that generates confidence and encourages business to expand, build new plants and make new jobs.

Ben S. Gilmet, president of Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co. in Atlanta, says his firm's capital spending plans for 1964 had been $403 million but have now been boosted to $413 million.

In Denver, Cris Dobbins, president of Ideal Cement Co., said, "We are laying out capital plans today that I'm quite sure we would not be considering if things hadn't changed."

The change could prove to be illusory, however, some businessmen insist. It could involve a presumption that Johnson is more conservative than he will probably prove to be, said Neil Roberts, president of the Denver U.S. National Bank.

Edwin P. Neilan, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said recently that he is withdrawing support of Johnson because he feels Johnson juggled his budget to present a "false face of frugality."

But whatever businessmen finally conclude when they've had more time to study Johnson, most of the leaders interviewed said that the signs so far have been encouraging.

President Elmer Engstrom of Radio Corp. of America, a member of the Business Council that advises presidents, sought to describe what's happened.

"In business, we look for go signs and stop signs," he said in his office. "We watch for signs whether the administration is friendly or unfriendly to business. These are not things that can be supported by physical facts. But we get the feeling that President Johnson is friendly, and this assessment is being strengthened."

Dr. Engstrom continued in careful, measured language, "Mr. Johnson has shown himself to be determined. With the tax cut bill, there has been movement. He seems to get things done, you see."

In addition to the tax bill, Engstrom cites favorably Johnson's talk of economizing in government and reducing the federal deficit.

Ex-President Hoover Ill From Anemia

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover has suffered a "serious setback" in health, a spokesman said today. A hospital room has been reserved for the 89-year-old former chief executive, who resides in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

The family of the 31st president said last June that his strength had been ebbing from anemia caused by intestinal bleeding.

He had undergone surgery the previous August at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center for removal of a cancerous tumor of the intestinal tract.

Hoover had been relatively inactive in recent months. One of his last public appearances was at a reception in May honoring Maj. Gordon Cooper Jr., the astronaut, for his 22-orbit flight.

Today doctors described his condition as "fairly satisfactory."

They said: "The present illness is due to bleeding from the right kidney, probably secondary to a kidney stone."

"The clinical picture has been complicated by a respiratory infection."

Baker Still Silent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite a blunt warning that he was risking prison, Robert G. Baker refused to testify today on his duties as secretary that enriched him while he held the post.

One of the questions—to all of which Baker pleaded his constitutional right to avoid self-incrimination—was whether he ever had sought to obtain gambling concessions in the Dominican Republic.

Others dealt with a Washington insurance man's gift of a hi-fi set to Lyndon B. Johnson before Johnson became president, and purchase of $1,200 worth of television advertising time on an Austin, Tex., station controlled by the Johnson family.

Don Reynolds, the insurance man, testified earlier in the Senate Rules Committee's investigation of Baker that Baker aided him in selling $200,000 of insurance on Johnson's life, suggested the hi-fi gift and gave him to understand the purchase of the advertising time was expected.

Baker, one-time Senate page, got his $19,600-a-year job as secretary to the Senate majority leader, became majority leader. A warning that Baker might, when Johnson, as a Texas senator, be exposing himself to a citation for contempt of Congress came when he refused to state what his duties were as majority secretary, a post he resigned under fire Oct. 7.

Baker calmly said he stood by his previous statements—that he refused to reply under his 5th Amendment right to silence, and under other constitutional guarantees.

After 2½ hours, the hearing by his previous statements—that he refused to reply under his 5th Amendment right to silence, and under other constitutional guarantees.

This would delay the start of an expected lengthy civil rights filibuster until about March 2. Awaiting expected House approval, the Senate was ready today for its final action that would send the $11.5 billion tax reduction bill to Johnson.

Johnson has been pushing hard for early action on civil rights. But party leaders invited to confer with him on legislative matters indicated they believe he may find it important to try to get a farm bill before the planting season starts March 1.

Wrapped up in controversial bill, on which Republicans thus far have blocked Senate action, is aid for the cotton textile industry and assistance for wheat growers.

Southern Democrats who oppose Johnson on civil rights but have been advocating support of him on other issues, are pressing strongly for action on the wheat-cotton bill.

Youths Arrested On Charges Of Drag Racing

Joe Dale Keightley, 17, Pacific Junction, Iowa, and Richard Herbert Geer, 26, Route 2, were arrested by Trooper Pete Stohr at 4:15 p. m. Monday for alleged drag racing, according to Deputy Sheriff Virgil Morris.

Morris indicated that Keightley was charged with careless and imprudent driving by drag racing and his bond was set at $1,000.

Geer was charged identically, except his information included the fact that speeds reached 100 miles per hour, Morris said. His bond was also set at $1,000.

The alleged race began at Third and Missouri, Morris reported, and terminated with the arrests. At press time Tuesday Keightley was still in the county jail and Geer had made bond.

Jump Accident Kills Four Paratroopers

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP) — Four Ft. Bragg paratroopers were killed and eight others injured during a mass parachute jump today at Holland drop zone on the Ft. Bragg reservation, military authorities announced.

They said the accident occurred when a C130 aircraft apparently lost altitude. The wing of the plane struck a group of descending parachutists, who had jumped from another plane.

The 18th Airborne Corps public information office said names of the victims were withheld pending notification of kin.

Three were members of the 504th Infantry. Another was affiliated with the Strike Command.

The jump involved some 1,500 men, about 60 to a plane. The aircraft flew in formations of three.

Senate Okay Assured

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed the compromise tax cut bill today, pushing the historic measure within one step of final enactment.

Senate leaders said that body will vote Wednesday on the bill.

Clay Fined For Ruckus At Weigh-In

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — A wild-eyed Cassius Clay drew a $2,500 fine for his bizarre shouting demonstration at the pre-noon weigh-in for tonight's heavy-weight title fight against champion Sonny Liston.

Clay, the poem-spouting Louisville Lip, weighed in at 210½ pounds, lighter than expected, and the champion at 218.

Commission doctors, who examined both fighters, said Clay's pulse was racing at 120 beats a minute while Liston's registered a normal 80.

Although warned by Chairman Morris Klein of the Miami Beach Boxing Commission against any wild demonstrations the 22 year old challenger showed up for the weigh-in ceremonies with a cordon of associates, screaming at the top of his lungs, and at times brandishing his fists at Liston.

"I am the greatest, I am the best in the world," Clay yelled, stomping about the temporary platform.

Liston looked at him in surly silence. Once someone on the side and smiled silence. Once he winked at Liston.

Liston held up two fingers, which could have been interpreted as a victory sign or a prediction of how long the fight would last.

Once the two fighters were no more than three feet apart and Clay was jumping and holding his fists high, yelling at the champion, "I am going to eat you alive."

Liston cupped his hands over his mouth and said in a low tone, "Don't let everyone know what a fool you are."

Klein said he had warned Clay earlier that he would stand for no foolishness on the day of the fight—particularly when the two enter the ring tonight at 10 p. m., EST.

'Believe They Are Winning'

Viet Cong In Push

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's top Marine said today the communists in South Viet Nam have stepped up the size and intensity of their attacks because they think the war is developing in their favor.

But Gen. Wallace M. Greene, the new Marine commandant, told The Associated Press he is optimistic about the eventual outcome of the anti-Communist war being waged with heavy U.S. help.

"I am optimistic as long as any outfit wants to fight," Greene said in an exclusive interview.

Greene discussed the war in South Viet Nam in the first question - and - answer interview he has granted since becoming commandant of the 190,000-man Marine Corps last Jan. 1. He looked over the situation on the spot just before the last coup.

The commandant said he was unable to answer questions growing out of a spate of reports that the U.S. government is considering moves to carry the anti-Communist war behind North Vietnamese lines.

Q—General, you were out in South Viet Nam shortly after you became commandant and in between the coups. On the basis of what you saw and learned out there, how would you assess the military situation in Viet Nam today?

A—Anything I could say would be based on the impressions of a short stay in South Viet Nam. However, I had the opportunity during this brief period of going from one end of the country to the other.

I had the opportunity to look at the latest plans for the campaign in that country. In my opinion they are very sound from a military point of view.

I reached a very definite conclusion that there were plenty of supplies—ammunition, weapons, and other means—on hand to accomplish the plan.

I had a chance to see the officers and men—both Vietnamese and their American advisers—in the battalions and companies and other units. I thought they were highly competent, that they wanted to fight.

I also came away with the feeling that this is a long-time business, and we aren't going to win the fight overnight.

Q—What was your impression of Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, the new Vietnamese premier?

A—The general is a highly competent soldier, well educated both in military and cultural matters—a man who knew the problems in his corps area, and had definite plans and positive intentions of carrying them out.

Q—Would you think that there might be a higher degree of aggressiveness in the Vietnamese forces now than before?

A—That would be pretty hard to say.

Parts of Bodies Recovered From Louisiana Lake

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — An Eastern Air Lines four-engine jetliner carrying 58 persons on a flight from Mexico City to New Orleans disappeared minutes after takeoff from a New Orleans stop today and crashed in Lake Pontchartrain. There were no signs of survivors.

The Coast Guard said it recovered parts of a large aircraft, including seats, communication equipment and soundproofing.

Also recovered were clothing, luggage and what was described as parts of bodies.

The Coast Guard said one of its helicopter pilots over the wreckage area reported there were indications that the plane either exploded in the air or on impact. The debris was scattered over a wide area.

The spokesman said the site is about six miles south of the north shore of the lake, or some 20 miles north of New Orleans. It was about four miles east of the 27-mile long Lake Pontchartrain causeway connecting the north and south shores.

Eastern said there were 49 passengers aboard, including 32 who were making the through trip and 17 who boarded in New Orleans. Fourteen of the passengers were pass-riding Eastern employees.

Eastern said the DC8, Flight 304, left New Orleans International Airport for Atlanta at 2:01 a. m. (CST) and disappeared from air traffic control radar screens minutes later. That was the last contact with it.

A veteran Eastern pilot said the jet probably reached a height of some 16,000 feet shortly after it got over the lake.

Lake Pontchartrain is some 30 miles in diameter, with its southern shore along one side of New Orleans. Marshy land surrounds much of the lake, which has an average depth of about 15 feet.

At the time the plane took off from New Orleans, the visibility was good. There was a light rain over the area. Winds were calm.

The Eastern spokesman said the plane made routine checks after takeoff and vanished from radar with no alarm given and no hint of trouble.

It was the first major crash involving an airliner taking off on a scheduled flight from New Orleans International Airport.

Seek Grant to Study Reasons for Smoking

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — West Virginia's official joint committee on smoking education says it will seek a federal grant to pay for its own private study of what causes people to start smoking.

State Health Director N. H. Dyer, co-chairman of the committee, said antismoking campaigns need additional basic information if they are to bring results.

"You can't treat a patient without a good diagnosis," he said.

Viet Cong

for me to say at this distance, but I would say that General Khanh has pretty well demonstrated his military capabilities. He's carried out highly successful operations against the Viet Cong.

Q—The Viet Cong seem to be operating in larger units now, in perhaps more aggressive form, what had been called Phase II in guerrilla war doctrine.

A—You mean in the battalion-size team?

Q—Yes. What significance do you see in this? Doesn't this mean that their capabilities have increased in arms and men, as well as perhaps their confidence?

A—I think that size of the attack is part of the concept or which the Viet Cong and Ho Chi-minh, and men of the other Communist forces, have operated for years.

In other words, they start off with small group attacks. Then, as the situation develops in what they think is their favor, they increase the size of the attacking groups and the force of the attack.

I think that this doctrine is behind the battalion-size attack, rather than an improvement in the weapons situation, although I am sure they are getting new weapons.

Q—Since you were out there a pattern appears to have developed, with Viet Cong Communist terrorist attacks aimed directly at the Americans for the first time. How do you see the significance of this? Do you think it is a concerted campaign? And, if so, what could be their motive?

A—I could only hazard a guess that perhaps the Viet Cong feel that bringing this sort of attack home to the Americans who are stationed in Saigon may be a means of harassing and discouraging them.

Q—The role of the U.S. Marines in South Viet Nam has not been highlighted quite as much, as the Army Special Forces. What can you say about this?

A—Well, we're doing a very definite job in South Viet Nam. For the past two years we've had a reinforced helicopter squadron up in the more mountainous areas.

They've flown approximately 52,000 sorties for a total of some 32,000 flight hours. In the execution of this mission they have lifted over 8.5 million pounds of cargo and approximately 200,000 passengers, the bulk of whom were combat troops. This gives you some idea of the job they have been doing.

Q—Speaking of helicopters, reports out of there seem to indicate the choppers are quite vulnerable even to the rather crude weapons that the Viet Cong use. What was your impression?

A—Well, my impression is that when you compare the number of flights that have been executed by helicopters, both Army and Marine, and the number of combat missions that have been flown, with the number of helicopters that have been brought down by enemy fire, the number is extremely small—surprisingly so, in view of the comparatively slow speed of the helicopter.

Fires In City

Sedalia firemen extinguished a grass fire at 2208 West First Street Terrace at 9:34 a. m. Tuesday. No damage was recorded.

An alarm was received at 3:11 p. m. Monday from the Opal Denhar residence, 703 North Prospect where a grass fire was in progress. Firemen extinguished the blaze and no property damage resulted.

A vacant lot at 415 East 25th was the scene of a grass fire at 4 p. m. Monday. Firemen extinguished the fire with no property damage resulting.

Accidents

One person received injuries, not of a serious nature, when he "rode" the car he was driving over the end of the northeast corner of Flat Creek bridge about 4:32 a. m. Tuesday morning. The automobile, a 1953 Buick sedan, was demolished.

William Harlan, 21, Bonner Springs, Kan., an employee of the H. C. Smith Construction Co., Whiteman Air Force Base, was the driver of the car. Harlan suffered a fracture of the left shoulder, laceration under his chin, cut on the top of his head and abrasions and bruises of the left leg and thigh.

He was taken to Bothwell Hospital in a Gillespie ambulance where Dr. Donald Proctor rendered medical treatment.

Harlan told of taking some friends home south of Sedalia and heading back north on Highway 65 enroute to Warrensburg, where he recently took a room while working with the construction company. He explained the car belonged to a friend who warned him the front end was acting up. He said the car swerved and struck the side of the bridge, spun around and hit the corner of the bridge and dropped off of it down into the water. The car ripped over more than 20 feet of bridge railing on the northeast corner of the bridge and dropped about 20 feet off the bridge, landing with half of the car in the water along the north bank.

The injured man said he was unable to open the doors of the car and rolled a window down to crawl out. He said at one time his whole body was under water. He succeeded in crawling up the bank to the roadway where a truck driver met him.

Walter Shoemaker's wrecker pulled the car out of Flat Creek and back to the roadway, then towed the car to Sedalia.

Police Court

City Attorney John C. McCloskey advised police late Monday afternoon that the case of Gayle D. Wasson, 25, 915 West Fourth, had been reset for hearing on Tuesday, March 3.

Before the continuance was announced by McCloskey, Wasson had been scheduled for court appearance on Feb. 26.

Wasson faces charges of peace disturbance and assault on a police officer in connection with a disturbance at LeRoy's, Ninth and Limit, late the night of Feb. 20. He is free on $525 bond.

Paul Morgan, 403 West Broadway, charged with disturbing the peace and destruction of property on complaint of Dorothy Carver, pleaded innocent, but after a hearing was found guilty. He was fined $25 on the destruction of property charge and given a 30-day suspended jail sentence on the disturbing the peace complaint.

Ernest Holford, 312 West Johnson, charged with discharging a firearm within the city limits, pleaded innocent and after a hearing was found innocent.

Shelby E. Summerville, Whiteman AFB, charged with careless and imprudent driving, forfeited a $75 bond.

William T. Pfletcher, 1009 West Ninth, charged with running a red blinker light, forfeited a $5 bond.

Joann Dee Larson, Ames, Ia., charged with speeding 50 in a 30 mile zone, forfeited a $20 bond.

The case of Ella Knox, 1115 South Grand, charged with careless and imprudent driving in connection with an accident, was withdrawn by City Attorney John C. McCloskey.

Charles W. Binney, 1018 East Fifth, charged with careless and imprudent driving by trying to elude police officers, pleaded guilty and was fined $25.

R. Lynn Davis, 1503 Driftwood, charged with parking on the wrong side of the street, forfeited a $2 bond.

George Norris, Thayer, Kan., charged with parking on the wrong side of the street, forfeited a $2 bond.

Area Fires

The Pettis County Fire Department was called to the Walter Kraft farm, Route 1, Hughesville, at 3:55 p. m. Monday. Upon arrival they found a grass fire out of control.

With the assistance of the Hughesville Fire Company and a Missouri-Pacific section crew, they extinguished the fire and moved to the farm of Mrs. John Callis which is in the same vicinity.

Here the fire was still burning and before it was doused approximately 240 acres had been

The firemen used both truck booster lines and pump buckets. It is believed that the fire had its origin near the Missouri-Pacific Railroad tracks.

Sheriff Report

Vandals damaged a building used for meetings at the Sakajawa Girl Scout Camp south-west of Sedalia sometime in recent weeks. John Carrier, who looks after the camp buildings, reported the damage Sunday to Sheriff Emmett Fairfax, who investigated.

A screen was pried loose on a south window of the building, Fairfax said, and the vandals scattered papers inside and drove some nails in the floor.

The vandalism occurred sometime after Feb. 2, it was reported.

Church Tax, Latest Move By Crusader

BALTIMORE (AP) — Mrs. Madalyn Murray is trying to put church property on the tax rolls.

Mrs. Murray has already filed suit in Baltimore to erase tax exemptions for church property, and she says similar suits will be filed in Los Angeles, Chicago, Stockton, Kan., and Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Mrs. Murray is the Baltimore woman whose suit to end required prayers and Bible reading in the public schools was upheld last year by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The 44-year-old mother of two boys said today further court action against the tax exemption for churches was planned for Florida and Texas.

The suit, in Baltimore, at least, attacks the exemption in terms of first amendment prohibitions against church-state affiliation.

The Baltimore suit, filed last Oct. 15, asks Superior Court to declare the tax exemptions unconstitutional, stop officials from granting further exemptions and direct the state to put churches, parochial schools and grounds on the property tax rolls.

"We're going to lose in Maryland," she said, "but we hope to win in Iowa and California. Chicago and Stockton are uncertain."

"We," she said, refers to Other Americans, Inc., a corporation she formed to promote distribution of information about atheism.

Present plans, she said, calls for Other Americans to set up headquarters on a tract of land near Stockton owned by Carl Brown, a 77-year-old Kansan who has dabbled in nudism, atheism and politics.

Mrs. Murray said the Stockton tax exemption suit would probably be filed this week in Brown's name.

Mrs. Murray was asked why she chose Baltimore, Chicago, Cedar Rapids, Stockton and Los Angeles.

"If you draw a line through them on a map, they form an arch," she replied, half seriously.

Financial Report 'Not True Picture' Of Defense Spending

A review of Pettis County's financial statement published Sunday reveals earlier reports that the local Civil Defense agency expended $5,281.39 in county funds during 1963 are misleading.

Technically, it was pointed out by County Clerk J. H. Green, disbursements for this amount were shown for the agency, but actually only $3,717.44 of county funds were spent.

This reduction from the amount shown in the financial statement comes from consideration of four warrants totaling $1,563.95 paid to the city of Sedalia representing the city's share of matching federal funds received on the agency's behalf.

These four warrants, their dates and amounts were as follows: April 23—$257.26; Oct. 4—$459.76; Nov. 7—$413.89; and Dec. 20—$433.03.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Why do people who have had too much to drink invariably peel off their clothing? I have yet to see a person who is loaded put anything ON — but an awful lot of drinkers seem to take things off. Usually it's the shoes that come off first — particularly with women drinkers. Next, they shed stockings, belts, earrings and so on.

I've worked as a waitress for a catering service for 10 years and have had plenty of opportunity to observe party drinkers. I have always been baffled by the inevitable disrobing process which usually begins after three martinis. What causes it? — SARDINE PUSHER

Dear Pusher: Alcohol removes the inhibitions and produces a "don't give a darn" attitude. It also dilates the surface blood vessels which cause people to feel warm.

Combine these two factors and you have the complete answer to your question.

Dear Ann Landers: Three years ago I married a bachelor who was 20 years my senior. He was kind, gentle and considerate.

I knew the score when I went into this second marriage. Romance was not in the picture. It was pure companionship. There was one drawback — I had to accept his spinster sister since they had always made their home together. Before long I realized what a mistake I had made but never once did I complain or let him know how abusive and domineering she was.

Two months ago my husband died. His sister refuses to move out of this house. My husband owned the house outright and left it to me in his will. She says it makes no difference. The house is all she has left of him and she will never move.

He left her a nice trust fund which will take care of her if she lives to be 100. Please tell me how to get rid of this shrew — short of calling the police? This I will not do. — MARTHA

Dear Martha: Offer to sell her the house at a price arrived at by an appraiser. If she refuses to buy the house from you, then go ahead and sell it and let the NEW owners call the police.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 16-year-old girl who is very mature for my age. I have been served liquor since I was 15 and no one has ever asked to see my I.D. card.

I'm madly in love with a boy who is 17. He has given me his class ring which means we are as good as engaged. I am going to marry him. Nothing in the whole world can stop me.

The problem is his mother. She hates me like poison. Whenever he wants the car to take me out she thinks up an excuse. Once when I was in her house and she wasn't there I accidentally burned a hole in the sofa. Like a dunce I called her the next day and offered to have the sofa repaired. Instead of being nice, and complimenting me on my honesty, she blew her top and ordered me never to come to her house again when she wasn't there.

I would give anything if I could get this woman to like me. Please give me some suggestions. — CHILLED

Dear Chilled: You are NEVER going to get this woman to like you, so forget it. As a matter of fact, you aren't going to get ANY boy's mother to like you unless you straighten around, kiddo.

No mother in her right mind would approve of a 16-year-old girl who drinks, smokes and visits in her home when no adult is there. Where is YOUR mother, Toots?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

CALIFORNIA — Miss Jean DeLong, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Dale DeLong, California, Mo. has been accepted for the Mexican Youth Conference sponsored by United Christian Missionary Society. The Society selects twenty young people in the United States for the tour in the Republic of Mexico. The tour will start on July 22 and ends on Aug. 12. The tour will be made by bus to visit and work in various mission stations in Mexico.

Jean who is 17 is a junior in the California High School and she worked on a youth project last summer in St. Louis Christian Church. She has had two years of Spanish in high school. She is required to do much research work on Mexico and to write a paper on Missions in Mexico and other subjects before she begins her work on the tour.

Jean's father is pastor of the First Christian Church in California, Mo.

OTTERVILLE — The February meeting of the Otterville PTA was held Tuesday evening with the president, Mrs. Glen Gant, presiding.

Mrs. Forest Lewis gave the devotion and led in a Founders Day program.

A donation of $10 was made to the Caroline B. Ullman fund. In the absence of Allen Williams, Junior Class sponsor, and the Junior Class, Col. William H. McKnight accepted the $5 check for the membership award.

The nominating committee to select the slate of officers for next year will be: Mrs. William Dunham, Mrs. Calvin Otten and Mrs. Leo Bottoms.

Miss Margaret Gates from the Boonslick Library was present and talked on the library tax.

Mrs. Gant introduced Mrs. Forest Lewis, in the absence of Mrs. Ralph McDowell, Founders' Day chairman, who presented the program assisted by Mrs. Clyde Paul and Mrs. Eddie Seifert.

Red carnation corsages were given to the three PTA members who held the longest memberships in the organization. They were Mrs. Clyde Paul, 15 years; Mrs. William Dunham, 12 years and Mrs. Nancy Meyer, 11 years.

Annie and Sonny Clark played several numbers on their steel guitar and accordion and Danny Gant played two piano solos.

The fifth grade received the attendance banner.

Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria by Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. Dunham, Mrs. Leo Bottoms and Mrs. Joe Walenburn.

The February meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Monday afternoon at the Legion Home.

The president, Mrs. Ralph McDowell, was in charge of the meeting, and Mrs. Walter Dowdy, chairman, was instructed to order poppies for the Poppy Day Sale in May.

Since March 9, is the Legion birthday, plans were discussed

Would Commemorate Ft. Scott History

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (AP) — Legislation to commemorate old Ft. Scott and four other historic sites in southeastern Kansas has been introduced in Congress by Rep. Joe Skubitz, R-Kan.

It would authorize the secretary of interior to take whatever action necessary to recognize the importance of Bleeding Kansas from August 1855 to November 1856 and during the Civil War.

relative to a joint meeting and covered dish supper for members and their families.

The program for the afternoon was on Civil Defense. Miss Sadie Homan from the Brick Homemakers Club and Mrs. Lee Smith, gave very interesting information on tornadoes, first aid, etc., and Mrs. Smith distributed pamphlets on fallout protection, medical self-help training and tornado safety rules.

Mrs. Jesse Parsons gave a short talk on Americanism, this being the month of famous presidents, but that we now, as in the past century, have a very trying time and should do as the late President Kennedy said: "Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country."

It was announced that the 8th District meeting of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary will be held at Otterville High School on March 1, at 1 p.m. Cakes will be furnished by the auxiliary members.

Mrs. Smith also announced that the Brick Homemakers Club will show a film on the Holy Land at 7:30 p.m. March 6 at the Legion Hall.

NBC Comedy Characters Found Boring

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Gambling Heart" on NBC Sunday night, an original comedy by the eminent film and television writer Horton Foote, was acted by a skillful company of players. It was given a lavish production. It was a tedious, unfunny bore.

The plot concerned an aggressive mother with two daughters. One was married to a pompous, money-mad promoter. The other was married to a humble owner of a dry cleaning store. The action swirled around some oil stock on which the dry cleaner had timidly gambled all his savings, goaded on by his mother-in-law and the big talking promoter.

There was a tremendous amount of storming around and yelling — but no laughter in my living room — before the dry cleaner took his profits and ran.

If an ingratiating fellow like Wally Cox had played the dry cleaner, he might have achieved some warmth for the character. As it was, they were all brash, harsh and thoroughly unattractive. It was impossible to care what happened to any of them.

"That Was the Week That Was" on Friday night kicked off with a savage satire on fair employment practices, but the rest of the show proved rather slow going.

The spiciest bit of the evening on NBC was a continuation of the feud between the program and Jack Paar whose hour show follows it. Paar is unhappy about the size of the audience he inherits from the revue.

Toward the end of "TW3" a voice announced in crisp tones that "through circumstances beyond our control, the Jack Paar show follows immediately."

Paar came on with his pre-taped show, opening his monologue with more complaints about "TW3" and calling it, among other names, "Henry Morgan's original amateur hour." The rest of his monologue was in embarrassingly poor taste.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — A good deed performed last year has caught up with C. C. Green of Wichita Falls.

When Green found a wallet containing $1,100 in Brownwood, Tex., he handed it over to police for return to the owner.

In turn he received a telephone call from Wichita Falls police headquarters Saturday. Somebody had found Green's wallet and turned it in.

Green didn't even know he lost it. It contained $430.

Among them was former middleweight boxer Rocky Castellani, wearing a Beatle wig and gym attire. He operates a resort bar.

Scranton Gets Nod

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona held the edge on the first ballot, but lost on the third and last to Gov. William Scranton at a mock political convention Saturday at the University of Missouri.

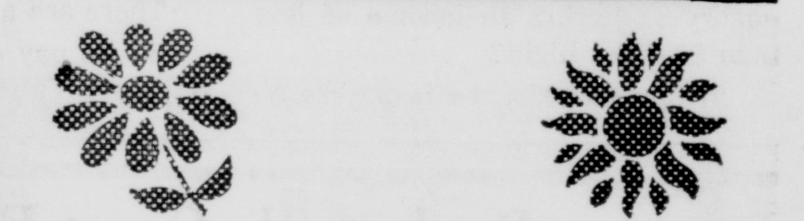

Scranton won the Republican presidential nomination with 872 votes to 181 for Goldwater and 86 for Gov. George Romney of Michigan. The Pennsylvania governor had 136 votes on the first ballot. Goldwater got 358 and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York 240. Rockefeller was in fifth place in the final vote.

The convention adopted civil rights, foreign policy and national defense planks in its platform.

Down With Poverty and Sin

In this national election year it is likely candidates of both major parties will encourage a campaign against poverty.

A politician who harangues against poverty has a subject that stirs the people almost as emotionally as the evangelist who preaches against sin.

The statisticians are already at work compiling figures for use by the orators. Coming out of Washington the figures should be official. But they should be examined slowly to determine whether they are logical or illogical.

Now at hand for our consideration and your perusal is the following contradiction:

First, there are 47 million families in America.

Second, one fifth of these have incomes under $3,000 a year, and so are classified as living in poverty.

Third, Federal, state and local welfare programs spent $44 billion in 1962.

One fifth of 47 million is 9.3 million impoverished families. Right? Now, if all the welfare money was paid to the poor families, it would come to more than $4,400 per family—and not a single family would then qualify as having an income of less than $3,000. Right?

In other words, we taxpayers already are paying enough for welfare programs so that there need not be a single family in the country with an income of as little as $4,000, let alone the $3,000 the Government complains of.

And remember, too, that most of these impoverished people have at least some income, and not all would need a full $3,000 from the Government to bring them above the poverty line.

So who's getting the welfare? The rich people?

It seems evident that Americans now are being taxed enough in the name of welfare to give every poor family in the country an income above the poverty line specified by the Government. If these people are still poor, there must be something wrong with the welfare concept.

There is. Direct relief to the poor comes to something more than $600 for each poor family. The rest of the welfare program is administered on bases other than need, in most cases. A family with an income of $9,000 or $10,000—sometimes more—can live in subsidized public housing. A doctor's child can have a free school lunch. Persons who have contributed little and have independent means draw Social Security.

There are many such programs.

So we pay enough to abolish poverty, and it's still here!

Foreign Affairs Not Johnson's Field

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — For President Johnson the ideal situation would leave him free to concentrate on dealing with Congress, where he was one of the experts of the century. Foreign affairs were not his field.

But, ironically, once the Senate tackles the civil rights bill, perhaps this week, a Southern filibuster against it will tie up all other Senate business for weeks and perhaps months.

Johnson will need all his magic to save the bill but for those many weeks of filibustering there isn't much he can do except, perhaps, devote himself more completely to the unfinished foreign problems needing his attention.

For example: Cuba, Panama and Viet Nam.

But Johnson simply does not have John F. Kennedy's deftness in foreign affairs, at least in discussing them publicly. He has had some setbacks in negotiations although Kennedy might have had the same luck.

He couldn't, for example, get Britain or other friends and allies to cut off trade with Fidel Castro's Cuba.

Over the weekend there came a strange finish to his two-day conference in California with Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos when the two men wrote a communique on their meeting.

It glowed with agreement and agreeableness. Then Lopez Mateos held a news conference and rubbed off some of the glow. This involved Venezuela's charge that Cuba is trying to undermine and destroy Venezuela's government.

The Organization of American States — Cuba is no longer a member — is investigating the charges.

Although the Johnson-Lopez Mateos communique told of their desire to strengthen the OAS, Lopez Mateos told reporters the United Nations, not the OAS, should be investigating Venezuela's charges. This was not mentioned in the communique.

Mexico's Foreign Minister Manuel Tello reportedly said Mexico would not necessarily feel itself bound to support sanctions against Cuba if the OAS voted them.

What this might mean to the future of OAS — if Mexico ignored the OAS decision on Cuba — is anybody's guess. At the same time Lopez Mateos said the OAS should try to solve this country's difficulties with Panama.

Panama wants to renegotiate the 1903 treaty which permits this country to control the Panama Canal Zone indefinitely. The United States has offered to discuss the matter but has refused any pledges in advance.

If this may have caused some confusion, a speech Johnson made while in California was not entirely clear, either, although it was interpreted as a tough speech.

At one point, as a consolation for the troubles of the West, he spoke of the "spreading civil war" among the Communist nations.

One newsman there considered that important enough to make it the lead on his story for Saturday morning.

But this writer has been informed that before the story got into print Johnson's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, phoned the newsman that he was over-emphasizing the importance of that part of the speech.

Others used a different lead, based on another part of the Johnson speech. In this he said, without naming them, that "those" engaged in the "external direction and supply" of the Communist guerrillas fighting the American-backed government of South Viet Nam were playing a "deeply dangerous game."

This was interpreted by one reporter as part of a new campaign of psychological warfare against the Communists in North Viet Nam. But Monday there were indications from inside the Johnson administration that no policy decision has been made on the way the Vietnamese war is to be fought.

And, meanwhile, as he has with a number of the problems, Johnson set up a committee to make a study of the situation in Viet Nam.

Oldest continuously inhabited city in the world is Damascus, Syria, dating back 6,000 years.

New Life for Beater

By Polly Cramer
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
DEAR POLLY — Don't throw away that hand-operated egg-beater just because it is balky and hard to turn. Give it another chance; lubrication is probably all it needs. Spread a little shortening or cooking oil on the large gear wheel attached to the turning crank. If you wash your beater in an automatic washer, it may need frequent lubrication. Do not use machine oil or grease. You wouldn't want a stray drop in food being mixed with the beater. — MRS. A. M. B.

DEAR POLLY — Our car tires kept losing air and we discovered several nails in them. Our son took a magnet, tied a rope to it and dragged it around our unpaved driveway, garage and parking area. We were surprised at the number of nails, tacks and bits of sharp metal the magnet picked up. We have had no more tire trouble. — Mrs. H. B. W.

DEAR POLLY — We girls get upset when wrinkles will not come out of nylon curtains and wearing apparel. I had packed my kitchen curtains away and they were so wrinkled I thought I could not use them. I tried spray starch, just enough to make them iron easily, and they came out smooth. I hope this helps someone else. — MRS. O. W.

DEAR POLLY — There was a time when I felt sure I would have snagged, ruined hose if I wore a full net undershirt. We square dance twice a week so something had to be done to cut down on the hosiery bill. Now I buy or make half slips with 7 or 8-inch flounces around the bottoms. Cheap nylon net (it does not have to be hemmed) sewn 1/4-inch from the edge can be cut 1/4-inch shorter than the slip flounce and gathered around it. Bias tape or ribbon can be quickly stitched on to hide the top raw edge where the net is sewn to the slip. Having all the fullness at the bottom makes for pretty twirls when dancing, a smooth neckline and hose without snags. — LEE

School and You

Is Teacher Above Suspicion

by Susan Light
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LIGHT — My daughter's world history teacher recently has been covering a unit on Marx's "Communist Manifesto." We did not object to a study of this book itself, but the final test worried us. Each child was required to write a speech to be given to a hypothetical group which would convince that group that communism is inevitable and the most desirable system. Do you feel this "was a wise way to handle the material? Should it be reported to the school authorities? Later in life these essays could possibly be held against the children who wrote them. — GOOD AMERICAN ANSWER — Undoubtedly a few Communists have taught in our public schools. This is not sufficient reason, however, to point a finger at every history teacher who attempts to discuss communism impartially. Most teachers are only trying to encourage their students to think for themselves about international issues and to draw their own conclusions, based on facts.

Your daughter's teacher may have gone a little far but perhaps he merely wants his students to realize the true nature of a competing system and this is his way of dramatizing the point. Unless he made his reasons clear to his students, it is doubtful the test was a wise way to handle the subject.

Before reporting anything to the school authorities, make sure of your facts and give the teacher a chance to speak for himself. He probably can clear up any doubts or misconceptions you may have.

If you are not satisfied with his explanation, go to the superintendent. Don't, under any circumstances discuss the situation with others. Rumors spread fast and facts can too easily be distorted.

DEAR MRS. LIGHT — Not long ago our son ran for student council. This is a big thing in his junior high school, and a great deal of emphasis was put on the election. The father of one of his opponents owns a printing company. The boy consequently had professional-looking posters, handbills, buttons, and souvenirs. He won the election. Our son thought we should have helped him with his campaign. Do you agree? — NOT POLITICIANS

ANSWER — Parents should stay out of student politics —

The original horror story of "Frankenstein" was written in 1816 by Mary Shelley, wife of the poet. During a sojourn in Switzerland, the suggestion was made that members of the house party should write a romance dealing with the supernatural. Byron, who was also present, wrote a tale about a vampire. "Frankenstein" was published in 1818 when Mary Shelley was about 21 years old.

Status In Dialects

"My Fair Lady" pokes fun at the cockney accent of Eliza Doolittle, but Henry Higgins, her linguistic reformer would not be popular in Britain today.

Television and universal education are playing tricks with the traditional upper-class British accent. In the days of radio, the nasal drawls of the Oxford and Cambridge graduate were cultivated and the regional dialects were considered a sign of inferior education and a definite obstacle to a career.

Not so today. The modern generation in Britain is required to stay in school until the age of 16. As a result a blended dialect of intelligible spoken English is emerging. One college professor says that the modern standard speech in the midlands is a combination of American slang, broadcasting

Rockefeller Forges Ahead of Goldwater

By DREW PEARSON

BUFFALO — The political soundings of this observer lead to the conclusion that Gov. Nelson Rockefeller is rapidly forging ahead of Sen. Barry Goldwater in New Hampshire and that he will win that key primary.

Reports from other important states, including California and Oregon, also indicate that Rockefeller is on the upgrade, Goldwater on the down.

However, there is one state where the Governor of New York will not have a unanimous delegation to the San Francisco convention — namely, New York.

In his home state Rockefeller faces rebellion and bitter opposition from inside his own party in both Syracuse and Buffalo. Delegates from these areas will vote against him next summer.

Syracuse is a conservative GOP area where the majority of Republicans just don't like Nelson. Buffalo is a mixed-up political pocket where Republicans are battling against each other as vehemently as Democrats are feuding over Civil Rights in the U. S. Senate. Here, Bob Grimm, the GOP County Chairman, has turned against Rockefeller's friend, Sen. Walter Mahoney, while Mahoney isn't even speaking to his own brother-in-law, Johnny Sullivan, whom he put on the Senate staff in Albany only to ease him out when the liquor scandals began to embarrass the Rockefeller regime. Sullivan has now teamed up with another Mahoney critic, Mayor Chester Kawol of Buffalo, an elegant gentleman who speaks precise English with a Polish accent.

WALL STREET JOURNAL: Smokey in the Chips. — It is good to know that at least one adjunct of the federal government is actually making some money. We refer to that ubiquitous symbol of forest fire prevention, Smokey the Bear.

Because the government owns the rights to Smokey, anybody who wants to use him in a commercial enterprise pays it a royalty. As a result, while the image of the roly-poly bear is appearing on sweat shirts and being molded into Smokey-shaped bubble-bath containers it is also bringing in dollars. An expected total, in fact, of $45,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30.

Now the Forest Service's success with Smokey the Bear may give some people the idea that it would be nice if other federal agencies developed gimmicks of their own to help offset even in a small way, their expenditures. The only bearish thought is that real life officials can spend money a lot faster than any imaginary character can earn it. Indeed, in bureaucracy's forest to have it any other way would be unbearable.

English and the old dialects. Elocution classes are popular because students realize that good speech is an asset in getting a job.

Should Harold Wilson, the Labor leader become Britain's next Prime Minister, although an Oxford graduate, his oratory is tinged with dialect. Dialects are acquiring status and titles are being discarded in the Britain of today.

Most important 1961 development in the candy industry was the increased use of chocolate in candy, largely due to record cocoa bean production, according to the Britannica Book of the Year.

All of this infighting adds up to trouble for the leading Republican candidate for President in his home state.

Note — Another Republican in trouble is the GOP National Committeeman, Bill Miller, who probably cannot be re-elected to Congress again — even if he wants to run. Sprawling, industrial Niagara Falls, usually Republican, has turned Democratic — the real reason why Miller is retiring from Congress.

Rocky and Maggie?

You don't hear too much about the Rockefeller divorce in New York state. It's an old story. And like many old stories, people have got used to it. The new Mrs. "Happy" Rockefeller has also won some friends.

Underneath the surface, however, there is still a lot of feminine opposition to Rockefeller's divorce and remarriage.

When you throw out the idea that Rockefeller might take as his running-mate, the first lady candidate in history, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, however, you get an entirely different reaction. Women who have frowned on Rockefeller immediately begin to perk up and look pleasant. My hunch is that if Rockefeller teams up with the lady from Maine, he would win a lot of the female vote which otherwise would be against him.

Note — President Johnson remains strong in this normally Republican section of New York. The general impression is that he is doing a good job. GOP attacks on his stereo gift of seven years ago have been regarded as flea bites, and if the vote were taken today he would beat any Republican candidate.

The Mature Parent

Shun Role of Busybody

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: My brother, 16, is getting into trouble with a married girl. Her husband has twice told my parents to keep him away from her, but I know he still sees her. My boy friend and I saw them smooching in a movie the other night. When I told my parents this, they said I had been mistaken. As I am only 19, my brother won't listen to me when I try to tell him that this girl is no good.

Answer: Child, your brother's behavior is your parents' business. That they are not attending to it doesn't make it yours.

Do you know what a busybody is?

A busybody is the child—usually the eldest child—of people who have been unable to protect themselves and their families against disasters. In his childhood, the busybody has therefore experienced many family disasters. As a result of them, he has lost trust in his parents' ability to look after themselves and their children.

Without knowing he's doing it, he takes over their responsibility for his family's safety.

As I suspect you do, he lives in constant apprehension of new family disasters, and tattles, fights, pleads for some action that may avert them.

But he is never credited with his protective intention. By trying to arouse your parents to action on your brother's infatuation, you have only aroused their irritation and his anger. Your family has made it clear that it cannot use your concern. Register this. Take it in. And give up. Otherwise, you may turn yourself into that chronically anxious, unpopular, over-helpful creature we call a "busybody."

It is just possible that your parents will wake to their responsibility to your brother if you withdraw from this problem and stop trying to shield them against its possible nasty consequences.

You are 19. That is old enough to start to recognize the point at which we can do no more for other people. When we can recognize this point, we lose our busybody terror of troubles because we know that we have done all that is possible to avert them.

Optimism As To Prospects For Economy During '60s

Editor's note: Is the economy basically sounder today than at the start of the 1960 decade? The '60s' chances of soaring are discussed in this, second of five articles on the decade, by Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst.

Mark Twain PTA Stages Program About Founders

Mark Twain PTA met in the school auditorium Thursday for the annual Founders Day program. Devotional was given by Miss Ruth Burford, who spoke of the light that has been left shining by the founders of PTA as well as others and closed with a poem, "The Great Builder."

Mike Ballard, district executive counselor of Lake of the Ozarks council of Boy Scouts, introduced Aaron Haller, a member of the council. Mr. Haller presented the Boy Scout and Cub Pack charters for Troop No. 57 to Robert Weikel, local representative, who in turn presented them to Mrs. Swearingin, president of Mark Twain PTA, which sponsors the troops. Cub Master Frank Lamb and Scout Master Claude Lambirth introduced their committee members and told of progress and work the troops are doing.

A tribute to the flag was given by Steven Lamb, a cub member who also led the group in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Mrs. Bettye Murrell, school nurse, announced the Tuberculin skin test to be given to some of the school children in March. Jerry Kling, representing the local Jaycees, spoke on the Pettis County oral polio vaccine project, called SOS, in which every person over six months of age is encouraged to take part. Principal Jack Delph told of the bicycle safety program to be held for Mark Twain students on Feb. 23. This program is sponsored by the Optimist Club and presented by the Springfield Police Department.

Mrs. Swearingin announced the City PTA Council meeting will be held March 4 at First Baptist Church. Approval was given to change the date of the March meeting from the 19th to the 23rd. The Teachers Appreciation Dinner will be held at this meeting.

Mrs. Minnie Van Horn, Founders Day chairman, presented a Founders Day pageant entitled "Guard Well Thy Trust" with several PTA members and seventh grade students participating. "America the Beautiful" was sung by the seventh grade sextette.

Mrs. Van Horn then introduced past presidents of Mark Twain PTA and presented those attending rose bowls as tokens of appreciation. Present were Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Schrankler, Mrs. Haskell Cook, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Claude Lambirth, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Robert Uhr, Mrs. Fred Rose, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Sanford.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria by the hospitality committee. Tables were decorated to represent each month of the year and those attending were invited to sit at the table representing the month of their birthday.

Hughesville WMS Meets at Clark Home

The WMS of Hughesville Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Ray Clark Feb. 20 for the home mission book study. Mrs. Barnett Walker, book study chairman, opened the meeting with a song, "Send the Light." A silent prayer was given for Miss Pauline Chamberlin, who is in the hospital.

Teaching a chapter of the book study were Mrs. Walker, Mrs. George E. Williams, Mrs. Loyal Van Horn, Mrs. Albert Anderson and Mrs. Clark.

A covered dish luncheon was served at the noon hour. Present were Mrs. William Hoffman, Miss Minnie Hoffman, Mrs. Arnold Brownfield, Mrs. Charley Horn, Miss Jessie Funk, Mrs. Wayne Davis, Mrs. Archie Shireman, Mrs. Dewitt Phillips, Mrs. W. S. Smith, Mrs. Anderson and Johnny, Mrs. Van Horn, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Nora Wiseman. Guests were Mrs. Roy Miller and Mrs. Elmer Rhine.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Miss Minnie Hoffman.

false hopes of a soaring decade were widely accepted.

First, the population growth that was supposed to furnish the bang is showing up where it counts. For the next several years the big increase will be in the 20-30 age group. In other words, today's young people will reach an age to earn their own money, marry, and have babies. Today there are 23.6 million in the 20-30 group; by 1970 there will be 30.8 million.

This additional 7.2 million, if properly trained in industrial techniques and skills their parents may not know, can give a real boost to the economy, both in production and consumption. But no one minimizes the task of training them.

The big push from family formations should be just ahead — good news for home builders and furnishers, makers of appliances and children's clothes — and the medical profession.

A second reason for optimism is that demand for goods has been catching up with industrial capacity to produce. Surplus facilities built in the late 1950s are mostly in operation today. At the same time, the oldest plants have been made obsolete by the fast pace of technical improvements and are being displaced.

Many industries are near optimum production — enough surplus for flexibility and emergencies, but no longer a drag. This shows in the increase in industrial output, rise in the factory work week, increase in new orders—above all, in the spurt in corporate profits, especially in recent months.

A third plus point is business caution. It made the last four years sedate. It also side-stepped the excesses that have upset other economic upswings. Inventories are mostly in trim order, rising only moderately since 1960, and scarcely at all in ratio to increased sales.

Business spending has been more for updating plants than for over enthusiastic expansion.

In the last four years the deceptive glow of prosperity from a wage-price spiral has been avoided. Wage increases have stayed close to the rise in output per man hour of labor. (Union leaders are claiming this productivity actually has outpaced the pay gains.) Competition has kept price boosts modest.

And businessmen are feeling better about "the climate in Washington" — the government attitude towards management and labor. The feeling isn't unanimous but most seem more in the mood now to step up activities. Polls taken last month show a marked increase in the money that business plans to spend this year on expansion over the intentions expressed only last fall.

Their customers are in a confident mood, too. For the majority the sixties so far have seen a slow advance in standards of living. Most consumers expect this to continue.

If they aren't spending wildly, they aren't scrimping either. Retail sales have hit new highs. Auto and appliance sales are strong. The consumer base for economic growth is sound, too.

Next: Problems, problems, problems.

Stephens College Club In Meeting At Chambers Home

The Stephens College Club met Monday evening, Feb. 17, at the home of Mrs. George Chambers, 912 South Harrison.

Mrs. Oscar DeWolf, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president, who is ill.

The business meeting was followed with a discussion of the growth of Stephens College, Columbia, in its activity in scholarships, the center for specialized training and the number of students.

Dessert was served in the dining room where the table was set with antique red thumb print glass, with a centerpiece of carnations of harmonizing color.

A white elephant auction was held.

WIND HAD A (SNOW) BALL—One cold, winter morning, the residents of the Knights of Malta home near Lewistown, Pa., looked out their windows and saw strange things on their lawn. The "things" were doughnut-shaped puffs of snow, some as large as two feet in diameter. Presumably caused by playful winds, the odd-balls had never been seen before by the residents—and none are younger than 75 years old.

The Beatles Hike Ratings For Sullivan

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—According to the A.C. Nielsen Co., the first appearance of the Beatles on Ed Sullivan's show of Feb. 9 was seen on television sets in an estimated 23 million homes and by close to 70 million people.

These gigantic audience figures, projected on the basis of samples made by Nielsen, catapulted the Sullivan show into the No. 4 position among the networks' top 10 programs.

If the ratings had been taken on the basis of only one Sullivan show—the Beatle program — it would have been at the top of the list, well ahead of the perennial winner, "Beverly Hills Billies."

However, the ratings, considered by the industry to be the most authoritative, cover a two-week period, which pulled his average down.

The industry is now interested to know how the Sullivan show made out during the past two weeks, when he had the British rock 'n' rollers on both programs.

If Garry Moore wants to work in broadcasting next season, he has all sorts of offers to choose among. He has been invited, among other suggestions, to return to the Baltimore station where he launched his career, and to "do whatever I want to do" on a Portland, Maine television station, near his summer place.

"I'm thanking everyone," the comedian noted today. "But what I really want to do is get away from Garry Moore for a while—after 30 years."

After June, it will be temporarily retired Thomas Garrison Morfit who is sailing his boat and sitting in the sun.

County Republican Club Dinner Meeting Slated On March 5

The Pettis County Republican Club will hold a dinner meeting at 7 p.m. at Holiday Inn on March 5, with Lem T. Jones, state Republican committee chairman from Kansas City, as the principal speaker. The speaker was secured for the meeting by Dutton Brookfield, who was a candidate for mayor in Kansas City, who plans to have him flown down here for the meeting in his company plane.

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from Mrs. Mary Studer, secretary, TA 7-0424.

George Burden, Lee's Summit from the Congressional 4th District, will also be present.

Winter Blizzard Dumping Snow On High Points

DENVER (AP)—A winter blizzard swept southward from the northern Rockies early today, deluging mountains in heavy snow and creating highway havoc.

Snowfall was general but light across the plains where winds cut visibility to near zero.

Hundreds of motorists were stranded by deep snow drifts and blizzard conditions in Idaho, Montana, Wyoming and Colorado. Roads in northern Wyoming were closed.

A motorist near Helena, Mont., died when he tried to make it to shelter after his Jeep had stuck in the snow.

In eastern Idaho, snow drifts near the National Reactor Testing Station at Idaho Falls stranded 40 buses, 160 cars and 1,600 employees Monday.

Three to four-foot drifts were encountered by motorists near Powell, Wyo. Schools closed early.

The fierce winds, reaching 50 miles an hour, raked northern Wyoming and parts of North Dakota.

Twenty cars were involved in five weeks on a single hill north of Buffalo, Wyo., but no one was reported injured.

'Tom Jones' Sweeps Up Nominations

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—About the only surprise about this year's Oscar nominations is that the movie "Tom Jones" got only 10 nominations.

True, it was the leader—with "Cleopatra" second with nine—at the 36th annual Academy Awards nominations announced Monday.

Ever since it was first previewed here some months ago, "Tom Jones" has been the prestige picture—the one every producer and director in Hollywood wished he had made.

The rowdy British-made film starred the man many believe to be the best young actor on stage or screen today—Albert Finney.

Finney played the hero of the bawdy Fielding novel of 18th-century England. On stage Finney was a moody "Luther" but he played "Tom Jones" with the sex appeal of a Gable and the comedy finesse of a Chaplin.

Naturally, he was nominated as best actor.

He will be a hard man to beat when the Oscars are handed out April 13th.

His competition: Rex Harrison as the Caesar of "Cleopatra," Paul Newman as the despicable "Hud," Richard Harris as the football player of "Sporting Life," and Sidney Poitier as the benefactor of the nuns in "Lilies of the Field."

Finney's toughest fight will come from Poitier, the brilliant Negro star of the low-budget sleeper of the year. No Negro actor ever has won the top acting Oscar.

As to the nominees for the best actress category—anybody can win.

They are: Rachel (Mrs. Rex Harrison) Roberts in "The Sporting Life," Patricia Neal for "Hud," Leslie Caron for "The L-Shaped Room," Shirley MacLaine for "Irma La Douce," and Natalie Wood for "Love With the Proper Stranger."

Honor Society Elects Lee

The Missouri State National Honor Society Convention was held in Jefferson City on Saturday, Feb. 22. Attending from the C. C. Hubbard Chapter, Sedalia, of which R. E. Lee is sponsor, were: Charles Rice, president, and a delegate; Virginia Moody, a delegate; Alonzo Byrd, Jimmy Williams, Shirley Miller, Carol Allison and Loyatus Marshall.

R. E. Lee was one of three faculty sponsors elected to the executive committee from the Central Missouri area, which includes Kansas City. He was elected for a three year term. Virginia Rosensteg was elected for a two year term from Southeast Missouri and Miss Nellie Kitchen from Northwest Missouri for a one year term. The executive secretary for three years is Miss L. Hastings from the St. Louis area.

The purpose of this organization for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, to develop character in the students of the secondary schools of Missouri, and to advance the work of the National Honor Society.

There were 62 chapters represented and 480 registered. The first general session started at 9:15 a.m. Vic Robertson, president of the Jefferson City Chapter, presided.

The principal address was given by Paul Doll whose subject was, "Twelve Days Behind the Iron Curtain."

Following lunch tours were conducted through the new high school for which Jefferson City voted a bond issue and which has been occupied only since Jan. 20, this year. It was in this building that the convention was held.

The second session began at 1 p.m. with discussion, group reports, and installation ceremony. The business meeting was presided over by Blaine Steck, during which time the constitution was adopted and officers elected.

Chapters were elected as follows with the chapter to select the person for the office later: Jefferson City, president; Ruskin High School, Hickman Mills, vice-president; Hickman, Columbia, secretary; Parkway County, St. Louis, treasurer, and Center High School, Kansas City, historian.

Discussion groups were held on the following topics: "Are Requirements for Membership Adequate?" "Methods of Initiation, Should There Be a Standard Procedure?" "Should National Honor Society Chapters Be Active in Social Affairs?" "Is Your Honor Society As Important to Your School As You Think It Should Be?" and "How Could We Improve Standards of Honesty and Integrity in Our School?"

The convention will be held again in Jefferson City next year.

Predicts Good Record When Congress Quits

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Carl Albert, House Democratic leader, predicted today Congress would adjourn in midsummer "with one of the best records of any Congress in history."

"We should be able to finish all of our work and get out of here before the political campaigns get under way in September," the Oklahoman said in an interview.

"As far as the House itself is concerned," Albert said, "we are over the legislative hump. We have already this year passed the most far-reaching civil rights bill in history and a $16.9-billion military procurement measure. The tax bill which the House passed last year will be on the President's desk by the end of this week."

Albert noted that a timetable announced by the Appropriations Committee calls for final House action on all money bills before the end of the fiscal year on June 30. The first bill is due to reach the House floor late this week.

Clay Is Confident

Liston Outstanding Choice To Win By Early Knockout

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, the brooding destroyer, is an overwhelming 7-1 favorite—with virtually no betting—to burst the fabulous bubble of the brash bard from Louisville, Cassius Clay, tonight.

Most observers predict the lights will go out for the boastful, poem-spouting challenger within minutes, perhaps seconds, after the scheduled 10 p.m. EST opening gong in Miami Beach's pink-and-blue Convention Hall.

The fastest knockout on record in a heavyweight championship is one minute, 28 seconds, scored by Tommy Burns over Jim Roach March 17, 1908, and many are convinced this old mark will be broken.

"I won't be trying for a record, but I am for a quick knockout," Liston said. "It will be over as soon as I catch him." Sudden demolition has become the theme of Liston's awesome fists.

He has knocked out his last three opponents—Albert Westphal of Germany and former titleholder Floyd Patterson, twice—in the first round, using a total of 6 minutes, 14 seconds.

The 23-year-old Clay, who says he "floats like a butterfly and stings like a bee," refused right up to the zero hour to assume the role of a man waiting for the modern guillotine.

"I'll outbox him in seven rounds and knock him out in the eighth," he insisted, adding his favorite poetic twist: "I'm predicting eight to prove I'm great."

His never-ending spiel of "I'm the king—I'm the greatest" has failed to make a dent however, on boxing fans, who must shell out on a scale of $20 to $250 for one of the 16,000 seats. Indications were that they would stay away in droves.

Needing $800,000 to break even on the venture, promoter Bill MacDonald, the self-made Miami millionaire, said sales had reached only $330,000 and that only a last minute rush for the ticket windows could save him from a financial bath.

Meanwhile, a vast closed circuit television network, covering 269 theaters and arenas in the United States and Canada, is expected to gross between $4 and $5 million, assuring both fighters a handsome pay day.

If the over-all figure reaches $5 million, Liston, who also has a half-share in the parent promotional setup, stands to earn $1,360,000. Clay could draw $600,000, not bad for a young man who was an amateur four years ago on Uncle Sam's Olympic boxing team and who has literally gabbed himself to the threshold of the sports greatest prize.

The bout will be televised to Europe via satellite communication and will be broadcast nationally by the American Broadcasting Company.

A victory for the Louisville Lip—regarded as something in the miracle category—would provide one of the upsets of the century and one of the most astounding success stories in sports history.

Cassius acknowledges that he patterned his publicity campaign after that of the late wrestler, Gorgeous George, and started "throwing the jive"—as he put it—to attract attention.

Now he has banged his cane against the ground and repeated "I am the greatest" so often that he seems to believe himself that he is unbeatable—the golden boy of the ring.

Clay is a superb-looking athlete, 6-foot-3 and at 215 the heaviest of his career, but by comparison with the dynamite that Liston carries around in his gloves Clay has a powder-puff punch.

There are those who believe that Liston could drop his hands and let Cassius whale away at him for a full round, without ever being dropped to the canvas.

Angelo Dundee, Clay's trainer, cites Cassius' attributes as "a good left hand, a good pair of legs and lightning reflexes."

"He'll make a monkey out of Liston," Dundee said.

Liston is a frightening bulk of a man, 6-1 with an 84-in. reach, 46 1/2 inch chest when expanded, biceps and neck that measure the same—17 1/2 inches.

He has a left hook that lands with devastating force—it was this blow that smashed Patterson into senselessness both times—and a right hand that is frightening.

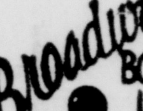

Sedalians Take Second Place In Soccer Match

The Sedalia Freese Dairy soccer team placed third Sunday in the Khoury League Bantam Division National Playoffs in St. Louis.

Sedalia played the Arena team from Illinois and was defeated 2-0. First half play saw Sedalia fall behind the two points necessary for their defeat. During second stanza, Sedalia held the Illinois team scoreless.

The playing conditions were poor, as previous precipitation had soaked the fields located in the St. Louis Fair Grounds. Keeping the soccer balls clean was a major problem. It was reported that Sedalia had several opportunities to score, but due to the weight of the mud which built up on their shoes, they were unable to do so.

The team was coached by Kent Maxfield and managed by Cleo Lees. Also accompanying the boys on their trip was Paul Klover, circuit director of local soccer play.

Valley Race For Records Getting Hot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The race for the Missouri Valley scoring championship between Dave Stallworth of Wichita and Ron Bonham of Cincinnati is just as hot as the Wichita-Drake race for the team crown.

Bonham has 236 points, Stallworth 231. Both have played 10 games and have two left. It's a two-man race, with Tulsa's Bill Kusleika in third place on 200 points in 10 games. Stallworth is the defending champ.

For the full season, Stallworth is the certain champ with 261.

Getting back to the league race, Stallworth is runner-up in field shooting with 54.2 per cent and seventh in rebounding with 9.1 a game. Bonham is eighth in field shooting at 49.5 and seventh at the foul line with 79.5.

McCoy McLemore of Drake took over the rebounding lead with a 13.2 average to 12.6 for Cincinnati's George Wilson, the leader most of the season. John Savage of North Texas has 11.8 grabs a game. Joe Strawder of Bradley 11.1, Kusleika and Nate Bowman of Wichita each 10.4. Gene Bogash of Drake 8.7 and Rich Naes of St. Louis 8.6.

Rick Park is on top in field shooting at 58.4 per cent. In third place behind Stallworth is teammate Kelly Pete, 52. Strawder and David Burns of North Texas are shooting 51.9 and Bowman 50.0.

Park trails Garland Bailey of North Texas in foul shooting, 89.1 to 86.5, although Park is the national leader for all games. Lavern Tard of Bradley is next at 86.5. Billy Foster of Drake has 82.1. Ernie Thompson of Bradley 80.6 and John Smith of St. Louis 80.5.

Strawder moved to fourth place in scoring with 18.1. Savage has 17.4, Burns 17.0, Park 16.3, Tart 16.2, Bailey 15.9, McLemore 14.6 and Bowman 14.3.

Valley teams took it on the chin twice Monday night, both times at home, as Centenary beat Tulsa 94-86 and Chicago Loyola clipped St. Louis 79-66. Kusleika scored 23 points and stayed third in all-games scoring behind Stallworth and Bonham's 23.8. Park hit 25 and jumped to seventh place at 16.7 for all games. Savage has a 18.8 mark, John Reuther of Louisville 18.6 and Tart 17.8.

Tipton Cage Play Begins Monday Nite

In the Tipton tournament of Class M regionals, Cole Camp upset New Franklin, seeded fifth in an up-and-down scoring spree ending 64-63. Tipton and Slater had an easy night winning their games by good margins. Tipton defeated Pilot Grove 85 to 18 while Slater took its game with Fayette 73 to 47.

Versailles having drawn a bye in the first round will meet Tipton at 8 o'clock Wednesday night. Cole Camp by its win will meet Slater at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday night. The third game Wednesday will be between California and Stover at 6:30 o'clock.

Tonight Sacred Heart vs Ashland at 6:30; Russellville vs Sweet Springs at 8 o'clock; and Osage vs Booneville at 9:30.

Tipton opened the tournament with the easiest victory to date, scoring enough points in the first quarter to have won the game. The first quarter it was Tipton 26-0, the second 21-9, to lead at the intermission period 47-9. Third quarter it was Tipton 18-1 and 20-8 in the final.

Glenn Arnold, who carries a 22.5 point average for the season, led his team with 27 points followed by Kenny Oswald with 16. Dave Wendelton was high for Pilot Grove with ten.

It was a battle all the way for Cole Camp with New Franklin. New Franklin took the opening period 14-13, and they knotted the second 12-12 with New Franklin leading at the half-time 26-25. New Franklin led down in the third quarter and Cole Camp took advantage of the period scoring 18 to 14 points and grabbed the lead.

The fourth period saw New Franklin making a desperate effort to win but were able to only score 23 to 21 points, losing the game by one point.

Meyer scored 24 for Cole Camp, Reinert scored 16, and Smart 14, while Cach tallied 25 for New Franklin.

In the third game Slater moved out front in the opening quarter and held tight to their lead throughout the game. They scored 16-14 in the first quarter, 16-4 in the second to lead the scoring at the half 32-18. In the third period it was Slater 23-11 and the teams knotted the final period 18-18.

Brucks led Slater with 20 points followed by Flynn with 11 while Moore was high for Fayette with 12.

Plans for the formation of the bloc are not confined to Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Hall Zeroes In On Top Goalie Prize In Hockey

MONTREAL (AP) — Glenn Hall is zeroing in on the Vezina Trophy, top goalie prize in the National Hockey League.

What's more, the Chicago netminder has become an offensive threat.

Hall, a mild-mannered veteran with steel nerves, opened a five-goal lead on his closest rivals in the Vezina running last Sunday by blanking Boston.

The shutout was Hall's sixth of the season, tying Boston's Ed Johnston for the league lead. But the Black Hawks' star probably will remember his assist on Bobby Hull's 36th goal longer. It was Hall's second set-up, establishing him as the goalie corps' top playmaker.

Hall is only 73 points behind teammate Stan Mikita in the individual point race. Mikita leads with 75 points. Hull was 72 and Montreal's Jean Beliveau 69.

Hull is the No. 1 goal-getter and Beliveau's 46 assists are tops in that department.

The Vezina Trophy goes to the goaltender who plays the most games for the team that allows the least number of goals.

Class 'M' Regional Play Begins

The Class M Regional Tournament began Monday night with games being played at Knob Noster. During first game competition Knob Noster downed Rich Hill 79-35. The second game saw Concordia Public High edge Butler 81-61 and the third game resulted in a victory for Pleasant Hill, as they defeated Adrian 70-48.

Knob Noster held the lead throughout their game. Rich Hill had a slow first and second quarter, as they only scored 10 points during play period while the opponents made 38 points.

First quarter scoring saw Knob outscore Rich Hill 19-4; with second quarter scoring 19-6 to leave the half time with a comfortable lead of 38-10. Back after the rest period the safety margin became slim with Knob Noster scoring 16-15 going to the fourth and final Knob scored 25 while Rich Hill once again stumbled scoring only 10.

Jerry Wharton hit 13 for Knob and Danny Northrup sunk 13 for Rich Hill.

Concordia also kept the lead throughout the evenings playing. A rally by Butler during the second stanza caused some apprehension, as the third started with Concordia ahead by only a margin of seven points.

First period saw Concordia edge ahead 18-11; with the second stanza closing out 17-17 making the half time score 35-28. Coming back from the half in Concordia again outscored the opponents 24-12 and during the fourth and final quarter Butler again rallied too late with the scoring 22-21.

Rex Watkins led the victors scoring with a big 19 and Jerry Boyd fought for Butler hitting 17 points.

Third game competition saw a hard fought battle staged by Adrian all the way through until the fourth quarter. Then they seemingly lost their steam for they scored only two points to 19 scored by Pleasant Hill.

The opener saw both teams scoring 19. Going to the second stanza Pleasant Hill crept by Adrian 15-14, thus leaving at intermission with the score 34-33 and anyone's ball game. Adrian slowed during the third by being outscored 17-13 and during the last quarter they were virtually non-existent, being outscored 19-2.

Pleasant Hill had the high point men for the evening. Ronnie Goss dropped 28 points through the hoop. Adrian's high point man was Joe Serviss sinking 24 points.

Playing will continue throughout the week with the finals Saturday evening. Game time is 6:15 p.m.

UCLA Keeps Its Grip On First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rolling merrily to its first undefeated season in history, UCLA maintained its grip on first place for the eighth straight week today in The Associated Press major college basketball poll.

The Bruins grabbed near-monopoly on first-place votes in the latest poll, being named at the top on 38 of the 42 ballots cast. Their total points—416 placed them well ahead of second-ranked Kentucky, which switched places with Michigan, No. 3 this week.

The voting was based on games through last Saturday.

UCLA's vote-getting power was based on 22 games won. The Bruins were named second on the other four ballots, marking the first time they have been given all first and second-place votes.

Kentucky leap-frogged over Michigan, which lost its third game in 21 last week. The Wildcats had 358 points, the Wolverines 332.

Kentucky received two first place votes and Michigan one. Oregon State, ranked sixth, was given the other one.

Duke held fourth place despite its loss last week to Wake Forest. Wichita moved up a spot to fifth, displacing Villanova, whose defeat by St. Joseph's sent the Wildcats reeling to eighth. Davidson also rose one notch to seventh.

DePaul maintained its ninth position, but Drake, beaten by Cincinnati, fell from the Top Ten altogether. Loyola of Chicago, No. 1 early in the season, returned to the select list as Drake's replacement in 10th.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. UCLA (38)	416
2. Kentucky (2)	356
3. Michigan (1)	332
4. Duke	158
5. Wichita	225
6. Oregon State (1)	195
7. Davidson	136
8. Villanova	124
9. DePaul	95
10. Chicago Loyola	40

Title Holder Shuns Meeting With Liston

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—Henry Cooper, a 29-year-old Briton, today reigned as British, British Empire and European heavyweight champion and immediately let it be known he wanted no part of Sonny Liston.

Cassius Clay, perhaps, or even Floyd Patterson. But Liston? No thanks very much, says Our 'Enery.

Liston defends his world heavyweight crown against Clay in Miami tonight.

Cooper added the vacant European title to his British crowns by outpointing Brian London over 15 rounds Monday night. Cooper jabbed, hooked and cutaway with his left to take the victory. Neither Cooper nor London achieved a knockdown, but both suffered eye cuts.

Cooper's manager, Jim Wicks, said: "If Clay wins his fight against Liston then we'll challenge for the title. If Liston wins then we want no part of him."

"If we don't fight Clay then we'll maybe fight Patterson in Sweden." Patterson is the former world champion who was twice demolished by Liston.

Colorado Downs Oklahoma State

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer

Colorado stayed on the heels of Kansas State's Big Eight basketball leaders by eliminating Oklahoma State Monday night and no one is less likely to take Colorado seriously than Coach Tex Winter of K-State.

The Buffs tied K-State for the crown last season by beating the Wildcats at Manhattan and nipped them for the title by one game in 1962. But this may be Sox Walseth's best coaching job in his career at Colorado. His lightly-regarded team stands 7-3 K-State 8-2.

Jim Davis, the lone returning big man from Walseth's defending co-champs, led both teams with 23 points and 11 rebounds as the Buffs wiped out an 11-point halftime deficit and beat Oklahoma State 56-54.

Kansas vaulted into a third-place tie with Oklahoma State by stopping Nebraska 64-55 at Lincoln behind George Unseld's 29 points.

The Jayhawks have a 6-6 record, the Cowboys 5-5 after a 4-0 start. OSU has failed four straight times to get Henry Iba's 69th college coaching victory.

The Ibas hit 62.5 per cent in rushing to a 34-23 halftime bulge. But the Buffs caught them at 45 with 7:15 left and surged ahead 52-47 before a late OSU rally.

Kansas moved from a 24-32 halftime edge to a 47-35 lead before Nebraska pulled within three points. Steve Renko then hit five quick points for Kansas.

The loss dropped Nebraska to 5-6, putting the Huskers in a three-way tie for fifth with Missouri and Iowa State, both also at 5-6. It's a five-team battle for third place, with the five only a half game apart.

Colorado opens a two-game road trip Saturday at Missouri and goes to Kansas Monday. It will be crucial to their title hopes. In other games Saturday, Oklahoma is at K-State and Nebraska at Oklahoma State.

Tom O'Hara Eying New Mile Record

CHICAGO (AP)—Over a muddy, filth-littered alley, over railroad tracks, over factory parking lots, over lawns, over bridge paths and parkways near busy Lake Shore Drive, over beaches of Lake Michigan runs Tom O'Hara.

The broth of an Irish lad runs, runs, runs, runs—70 to 100 miles a week. Then he runs a record indoor mile in 3:56.6 over the board oval of Madison Square Garden.

He and his coach, Jerry Weiland, are convinced he can run around 3:53 outdoors, smashing the world mark of 3:54.4 held by New Zealand's Peter Snell.

"Given ideal weather and track conditions, and competition from a sub-four minute field of runners, Tom will do a 3:53 or 3:54 this summer in California," Weiland said today. "He is capable of running three-quarters under 3:00 and still have a kick left to take the last quarter in .55 or a little less."

At 130 pounds, red-haired O'Hara is a bag of bones held up by well-developed legs and thighs.

"I'm not thinking about records," said the soft-spoken, unassuming Loyola of Chicago business senior. "I just want to make the U.S. Olympic team, and make a good showing in Tokyo. I honestly think I can do 3:53 outdoors. But my only thought is to run to win."

Before starting outdoor competition, he will enter three more indoor meets—the Knights of Columbus in New York Feb. 27, the Chicago Relays March 6 and at Cleveland March 14.

In this day of great milers who adhere to rigidity of training and diet, the 5-foot-8 inch O'Hara is a nonconformist. He regiments himself only by running.

Outside of a vitamin and wheat germ pill daily, he is strictly a meat-and-potatoes man. He never had a thorough physical examination.

His university hasn't even got a track or field on which to practice. The team works out in the Chicago Armory, and when O'Hara jogs around on the dirt there, he has to keep out of way of polo ponies.

Asthma Formula Prescribed Most By Doctors—Available Now Without Prescription

Stops Attacks in Minutes... Relief Lasts for Hours!
New York, N.Y. (Special)—The asthma formula prescribed more than any other by doctors for their private patients is now available to asthma sufferers without prescription. Medical tests proved this formula stops asthma attacks in minutes and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful asthma spasms. This formula is so effective that it is the physician's leading asthma prescription—so safe when used as directed that now it can be sold without prescription in most states.

YOUNG BOWLERS PLACE NATIONALLY — The above five Hillcrest bowlers were winners in the 17th Annual National Christmas Bowling Tournament of the American Junior Bowling Congress. There were 123,729 boys and girls who participated in the annual affair, with only the top bowlers in each city being considered in the tournament. Two Junior bowling instructors are shown with their students, Don Delph on the left and Don Potts on the right. The bowlers left to right are: Larry Harrison who placed fourth nationally in the Scratch Division had a score of 667;

In the Junior Handicap Division, Carol Huffman, placed sixth with a total score of 592. She had a handicap of 42 pins; Joyce Reynolds bowling in the Junior Scratch Division placed seventh with her 532. In the doubles competition, Junior Girls Handicap, won 13th place honors with their total 1,100 score, they are Donna Poundstone who carried a 21 handicap for the three games and Sharon Wilson who had a 93 handicap for the three games, their combined handicap being 114 pins. May Market Baseball As TV Package

WASHINGTON (AP) — Professional baseball may sell television rights to some of its games on a package basis—with all teams sharing equally—by next season, Broadcasting magazine reports.

The network plan receiving the most attention from a major league committee, the magazine said Monday, "is a no-black-out national game on Monday night," which could be worth about $10 million to the 20 major league teams.

This year, with each team selling its own television rights, the 20 teams stand to rake in an estimated $13.575 million, compared with about $13 million last year. The 22 teams in the American and National football leagues are receiving about $15.2 million for their 1964 games.

In addition to the individual rights, the All-Star game and World Series will add $3.5 million to the total take, and 12 teams will share about $1.7 million in rights for CBS-TV and NBC-TV weekend telecasts.

The New York Yankees lead major leagues, receiving $1.2 million for their individual rights plus a large share of the $1.7 million in network payments. The world champion Los Angeles Dodgers, the New York Mets and the San Francisco Giants each get $1 million.

Hopes Arm Can Stand Major Play

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Frank Lary, veteran Detroit pitcher who gave his sore arm minor league treatment last year, hopes it returns to major league caliber this season.

Lary, who signed a contract for his 10th full season Monday, has been working out daily at Lakeland, Fla., aiming to get back to the form that enabled him to win more than 20 games two times.

The New York Yankees want him to succeed like they want to see Sandy Koufax again this fall.

The right-hander, who will be 33 just before the season begins, has whipped the Yankees more times than any other active pitcher. His career record against the perennial American League champions is 28-13.

Last year, though, the Yankees escaped Lary's wrath as he did most every other team. Lary never recovered from a sore arm he suffered in 1962 and, as a result, spent some time in the minor leagues—Knoxville of the Sally League to be exact.

Before leaving, Lary was 0-2 with Detroit. After winning seven of nine games at Knoxville, he returned to the Tigers and finished with an over-all mark

Boys Suffocate When Cave Roof Falls On Them

DERBY, Kan. (AP)—Two 11-year-old boys playing in a cave on the Arkansas River bank were suffocated Monday when the roof collapsed.

They were Gary Yankowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lowe and Richard Duncan, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Richard H. Duncan. They lived in this suburb of Wichita. Duncan is stationed at McConnell Air Force Base.

Ten-year-old David Mike Isbell, a friend of the young victims, led police to the cave. A search had started about 8 p.m. and officers enlisted the boy's help.

The youngsters were under about four feet of sand.

Sheriff's deputies said Gary's pulse still was beating when they reached him, but resuscitation attempts were to no avail.

Police Sergeant's Trial Is Underway

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The trial of Robert Cox, suspended police sergeant, on charges of second degree burglary and stealing opened Monday in Jackson County Circuit Court.

Cox, 47, is one of five officers charged in connection with the alleged operation of a police burglary ring centered at the Country Club station.

He is accused of stealing $118 in a burglary at a cleaning and laundry establishment at the Brookside Plaza on March 13, 1963.

In his opening statement, Donald L. Mason, first assistant prosecutor, said evidence would show Cox and a patrolman working on Cox's shift broke into the cleaning shop. Mason said the patrolman, Randolph Keith Burton, will testify that Cox suggested the break-in.

of 4-9 and a 3.38 earned run average.

That, of course, was far below the standards he set in 1956 when he won 21 and lost 13 and in 1961 when he was 23-9. His new contract slightly reflects that fact, reportedly calling for $30,000, a $2,000 cut from last year.

At about the same time in 1962 that Lary served a month on the disabled list with his sore arm, another American League pitcher, Baltimore's Steve Barber, also had a place on the list.

Barber was felled by mononucleosis and dipped to a 9-6 record. He came back last season, however, and became the first 20-game winner in the Orioles' modern history.

His 20-13 performance and 2.75 earned run average brought him an estimated $5,000 raise to $25,000. The 25-year-old left-hander also signed his contract Monday.

Wesleyan Takes Bethel, Breaks Tie

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Kansas Wesleyan and Bethel were tied for seventh place in the Kansas Conference before Monday night's game and they were still tied, 22-all at the half, before Wesleyan made its move and won the game 66-49.

It ended the basketball season for both teams. Wesleyan is 8-10 and Bethel 7-11.

In other games Monday involving Missouri and Kansas teams, Cape Girardeau lost 92-90 in a non-conference game at Delta, Miss., State and Park College beat Wentworth 80-61.

In final league games tonight, McPherson is at Baker, Southwestern at College of Emporia and Sterling at Friends. Bethany which already has won the Kansas Conference championship is host to Ottawa Wednesday and Sterling plays at Tabor Thursday to wrap it up.

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

BANK HOLDUPS: Noting that banks are being held up almost as often as in the heydays of the Dillinger gang, a House subcommittee has charged that neither banks nor federal agencies are doing enough about it.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Dante B. Fascell, D-Fla., urged federal banking agencies to consider regulations that would require banks to take more steps to guard against robberies and embezzlements.

ARMY POST: Daniel M. Luevano, deputy director of the California Department of Justice, will be named assistant secretary of the Army by President Johnson.

Luevano's selection as the first Mexican-American to be appointed to a subcabinet post was confirmed by White House sources Monday.

Stolen Shrimp Boat Back in Home Port

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — A shrimp boat stolen from Key West by an American who defected to Fidel Castro was back today.

Its owner, Charles Griffin of Savannah, Ga., brought it from Havana Monday night.

The 25-foot Johnny Reb was anchored off Key West pending immigration and customs routine.

The American who sought Cuban asylum, Dennis Kirby, 22, a California sailor, had said he was dissatisfied with American life and wanted to compensate Cuba for the seizure of four Cuban trawlers near Key West. The trawlers returned to Havana last Thursday.

Regional Play At Smithton Under Way

The three winners in the Class S Regional Tournament at Smithton had easy sailing Monday night as Bunceton whipped Nelson 95-39, Houstonia taking Hughesville 80 to 45, and University High of Columbia defeating Boonville Catholic 85 to 63.

Bunceton's win moves them out to meet Ottaville Wednesday night in the opener, while Houstonia and University High met in the second game.

Tonight Prairie Home vs. LaMonte at 6:30; Smithton vs. Mercy of Marshall at 8 o'clock; and Lincoln vs. Green Ridge at 9:30.

Tuesday night, Bunceton outscored Nelson in every quarter, taking the first 18-5, the second 21-8, to lead at halftime 39-13. It took the third 32-17 and final 24-9.

Bunceton was led in scoring by Carey and Gerhardt with 20 each, and Dicus with 18. Robert Huston was high for Nelson with 17.

Houstonia led all quarters scoring 22-11, 11-6 for an intermission lead of 33-17, 22-9 and 25-19 to win.

Kessler led Houstonia with 23 points followed by Terry Pummfield with 21 while Gary Brownfield had 28 points for Hughesville.

University High and Boonville knotted the first quarter 17-17, but University High moved out in the second 31 to 14 to lead at the half 48-31. University was pushed in the third quarter scoring only 14-13 while the final was 23-19 for the win.

Twenter for Boonville was high point man of the evening with 31, with Brinkley leading University High with 24 followed by Skip Hines with 21.

Sidelights On Heavy Title Fight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Every heavyweight title fight in nearly nine years has ended in a knockout. The last one to go the distance was champion Rocky Marciano's 15-round decision over Ezzard Charles, on June 17, 1954.

If undefeated Cassius Clay should upset champion Sonny Liston he will join an elite group of three heavyweight rulers who had won all of their pro fights before ascending to the throne. The only others were John L. Sullivan, Marciano and Ingemar Johansson.

Joe Louis holds the record of first round knockouts in heavyweight title fights. The Brown Bomber belted out five challengers in the first round. Sonny Liston has two—both over Floyd Patterson.

The last big upset in a heavyweight title fight was Jersey Joe Walcott's seventh round knockout of Ezzard Charles in Pittsburgh, July 18, 1951. Walcott had been beaten twice before by Charles and was a 6-1 underdog in their third clash. Jimmy Braddock was a 10-1 long shot the June 13, 1935 night when he dethroned Maxie Baer on a 15-round decision in New York.

The referee will be wired for sound at the Liston-Clay title fight. Closed circuit television viewers will be able to hear him toll knockdown counts. A tiny microphone will be attached to the ref's shirt and it will look like a button. The transmitter will be carried in a pocket.

Under the new rules, if either Clay or Liston is on the floor from a punch when the bell ends a round, the referee will continue the count. If the downed fighter is counted out in the rest period, the knockout will belong to the round which had just ended. Most of the betting by the professional gamblers is on whether the fight goes more than five rounds. It's even money that it doesn't go beyond five.

Springfield Man Is Elected To Hardware Post

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Western Retail Implement and Hardware Association elected John W. Twitty of Springfield, Mo., as its president at its 75th annual convention Monday.

W. J. Adriance, Wellsville, Kan., the outgoing president, will remain a director for two years.

Marion A. Kline, Rock Port, Mo., was elected vice-president. Lloyd Deems, Lawrence, Kan. was named to the Farm Equipment Council, and E. H. Roth, Larned, Kan., was elected a director of the National Farm and Power Equipment Dealers Association.

The association's third annual farm show will be held today and Wednesday at Municipal Auditorium. About 20,000 farmers, Future Farmers of America, 4-H and representatives of other vocational agriculture groups are expected.

Soaring Sixties Get New Chance to Live Up to Title

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The Soaring Sixties have another chance to get into orbit. There's been a hold in the countdown. But many business and financial technicians think the economy could blast off — if some remaining bugs are removed.

The decade was billed to soar from the start. The population explosion furnished an increasing number to be fed, clothed, sheltered and educated. The argument ran: Where else could the economy go but up—straight up?

But it didn't soar. It didn't fall on its face either. Most of the economy's vital statistics show good, if unexciting, gains since 1960.

That year total production of goods and services was $502.6 billion. This gross national product was $585 billion in 1963 and now is running at an annual rate of $600 billion. In the four years personal incomes rose from $401.3 billion to $475.2 billion. Corporate profits after taxes went from $22 billion to $27.5 billion. Industrial production in 1960 was 109.8 per cent of the 1957-59 base and at the end of 1963 it was 127 per cent.

Why did the economy dip a bit in 1960, instead of soar? Here are some of the reasons:

—An expansion spree in the middle and late 1950s left many industries with excess production capacity. And many companies had overbuilt inventories.

—This coincided with less urgency in consumer demands. Much of the postwar demand for homes and gadgets had been met. People continued spending, but only a little more each year. Personal consumption outlay in 1960 came to $328.2 billion. At the end of 1963 it hit a record annual rate of $375 billion. But this wasn't the exploding demand that had been counted upon to blast the economy off the launching pad.

—And the population growth didn't work quite the way the experts had figured. The increase was mostly among those too young or too old to work. The 1960 census counted 180 million Americans. Of these, 68.4 million were under 19 and 16.5 million over 65.

Between 1960 and 1964 money for consumption was earned by about the same number of workers. Civilian employment was put at 66.7 million at the start of the decade and 68.6 million four years later. Unemployment rarely dropped below 4 million.

All of these things—business caution born of excesses, less urgent consumer demands, sticky unemployment—kept the decade from soaring at the start.

Since the business pace quickened just three years ago, the gains have been reassuring. But no one has dubbed them booming.

Heber Hunt PTA Founders Day Tea Reviews History

Heber Hunt PTA Founders' Day tea and program was held at 2:30 p.m. Feb. 20, with the program entitled "Our Object, Then and Now," presented under the direction of Mrs. William V. Owen. Those participating were: Rev. George Sparling, Dr. and Mrs. Ira White, Mrs. Douglas Jennings, Phil Burford, and Miss Barbara Tibbitts, soloist, with Miss Sylvia Thomas, as accompanist.

Mrs. Arron Hall, past president, was presented a corsage. The meeting opened with greetings from Mrs. Leland Phillips and the pledge of allegiance.

The devotion was given by Mrs. J. W. Rissler, and music was presented by the third grade pupils with Miss Florence Hert, director.

Tea was served in the cafeteria following the program with Mrs. Haller pouring.

Richard E. Herrick, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Herrick of 204 East 32nd, is serving aboard the destroyer tender USS Everglades, operating out of Charleston, S.C.

Everglades departed Feb. 8 to a tour of duty with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean area. The Sixth Fleet is a versatile, well-balanced force consisting of an attack carrier striking force, an amphibious task group and a variety of auxiliary ships which enable the fleet to operate for extended periods of time without the support of land bases.

James M. Billings, sonarman first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvia D. Orcutt of 907 East Eleventh, is serving aboard the anti-submarine aircraft carrier USS Essex, operating out of Quonset Point, R. I.

Essex is currently in the New York Naval Shipyard, Brooklyn, undergoing overhaul. On completion of the overhaul, she will rejoin the fleet as flagship for an anti-submarine hunter-killer group.

Essex is the Navy's oldest operating aircraft carrier, and celebrated her twenty-first birthday, Dec. 31.

Gary Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevens, Wichita, Kan., formerly of Sedalia, was awarded a certificate of merit, along with other members of the along with other members of the newspaper staff at Gosport United States Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

Stevens, with the publication for a year, is circulation manager.

'25 Year Club' An Example For Younger Working Set

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—In most large offices today there is an organization called the "25 Year Club."

It probably was created — or such was the fond hope — to boost morale among aging employees of the firm — and to offer living example to the younger workers that, by one device or another, it is possible for almost anybody to stay on the same payroll for a quarter century or longer.

Members of the club take themselves with high seriousness. They like to think of themselves as veterans, scarred by long and dedicated service to the company.

Their veneration for themselves is hardly shared by the youthful employees. These call the club the "Desperation Society," or "Wheel Chair Brigade."

If there is such a club in your office or factory, you might find among its members such familiar characters as:

Mossback Myron — After 47 years in the firm, he has the idea he owns it. If the superintendent even changes the brand of paper towels in the men's washroom, Myron wants to know why he wasn't consulted first.

Opportunistic Otto — As soon as Otto becomes eligible for the club, he wants to use it as a real club against everybody who isn't a member. "Why don't we demand that management make it a rule not to give a merit raise to anyone under 45?"

Good Thing Gilbert — The night they pinned a 25-year button in his lapel, Gilbert took off on a three-week binge — figuring he was at last safe from firing. Now Gilbert's back in the stock-room, right where he started 25 years ago.

Cynical Sid — "This thing and 15 cents will get you a ride on the subway anytime," he says of his new "endurance button." But actually he is secretly proud of it, and shines it every morning.

Grateful Gerald — A lifelong sad sack, Gerald is so glad to have any recognition at last that he would like to wear his 25-year pin in the middle of his forehead. If strangers don't ask him what it is, he tells them anyway.

Disgruntled Dave — He wears his 25-year pin upside down as a sign of silent disapproval of the fact that the firm didn't give him a gold watch and an extra week's vacation, too.

Ambitious Albert — Albert politics all year in hopes that the 25-year men will elect him head of the club at their annual dinner — so that the big boss finally will start calling him "AL."

Editor's note: We're not sure just where Boyle fits in this list — but he's a 28-year man himself.

Predicts Enrollment Of 14,000 By 1975 At Central State

A projected enrollment of 14,000 resident students at Central Missouri State College was predicted Monday by Dr. Warren C. Lovinger, president, in a talk before the Sedalia Rotary Club.

Dr. Lovinger said that growth estimates made since 1959 have been reached annually as predicted and that the current extension and resident enrollment totals more than 6,000 students.

Plans are to build two dormitories each year to meet the needs of growth, Dr. Lovinger said.

Dr. Lovinger was introduced by Wally Wise, program chairman for February.

Guests attending the meeting and introduced by Oscar DeWolf were: Rev. H. U. Campbell, president of the Lexington Rotary Club who also gave invocation; John Ryan, Sedalia, member CMSC board of regents, guest of Harry Hull; and Willi Heungens, Annsworth, Belgium, guest of Larry Griffith.

Student guests were Roger McClung and Harlan Rossman.

Richard Johnson led the singing with Mrs. Mae Pulliam at the piano.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXES PAID BY INDIVIDUALS

CHILD IS GROWING UP—The amount of revenue the government collects in income taxes is growing steadily. In spite of the tax cut, today's income tax is a far cry from what the founders of the country or even the original advocates of an income tax had in mind. Today the government relies on income taxes for more than 80 per cent of its revenue. Since World War II, inflation has almost doubled the cost of living, but federal income tax collections from individuals, see graph, have almost tripled.

News of Interest To Mid-Missourians

CLIFTON CITY — The Clifton City Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Oliver Bridges Wednesday for the February meeting with seven members and five visitors present.
